

Same

Some pray to God (or whatever name).
Some meditate and wait for answers from the universe.
Some aspire to the Pure-Point of Being and wait for Guidance from the universal consciousness.

There is no difference other than method!

When those that prey and cross reference to the Good Book, they know simplicity.

When those that meditate & wait for answers from the universe, and do not need to cross reference to a book, They know simplicity.

When those have aspired to the Pure-Point of Being, receiving guidance from universal consciousness, need to refer to the good books. As they know simplicity.

They all put their trust in the same god though!

Thus, by grounded (on planet Earth) balanced spiritual perception, Chios healers embrace simplicity to attune to the chakras,
and put their trust in the same!

Same and Simplicity are closely connected Thus, the greatest knowledge/guidance Comes from Same god!
